

A Look at FSMA Inspections

Kristen Spotz, Senior Manager, Food Safety and Quality Assurance, GMA

October 11, 2017
8:45 – 9:45 AM

GMMA

Based in Washington, D.C., the Grocery Manufacturers Association is the trade organization representing the world's leading food, beverage and consumer products companies and associated partners.

GMA Members | General Members

PEPSICO

FSMA Program GMA Organizational Work Streams

SRAC Executive Committee

Food Safety Modernization Coalition

Food Safety Modernization Steering Group
Food Safety Modernization Program

Food Safety Modernization Task Force

Education and Training

FSMA Implementation

GMA Strategic Committees & Sharegroups
(Addresses issues of F SMA & more)

GMA Domestic Education & Training

Preventive Controls Guidance Working Group

Regulatory Inspections Compliance Committee

FSMA Inspection ShareGroup

GMA SEF International Training

Preventive Controls Animal Food Working Group

Micro. Safety Committee

Sanitation ShareGroup

Training and Education Share Group

Allergen Committee

Supply Chain Mngm't (Foreign & Domestic) Working Group

Supplier ShareGroup

Intentional Adulteration Working Group

International Supplier Training

FSPCA

Practitioner-Level Training

Top 10

1. Communication
2. Use of Resources
3. Food Safety Plan readiness
4. Training
5. Photography

Top 10 Continued

6. Record Review
7. “Swab-a-thons”
8. Supply-chain Programs
9. Foreign Supplier Verification Programs (FSVP)
10. Allergens

THANK YOU!

Kristen Spotz

kspotz@gmaonline.org

1350 I Street, NW
Suite 300
Washington, DC 20005
(202) 639-5000
info@gmaonline.org
www.gmaonline.org

The Association of Food, Beverage and Consumer Products Companies