

Spice Integrity Council

Drives awareness, influence and guidance to empower members to detect, mitigate, and prevent fraud in the spice and herb supply chain

Responsibilities/Key Activities

- Provide education on economically motivated adulteration (EMA) risks for the spice industry
- Oversee ASTA's self-regulatory program
- Develop guidance on risk mitigation strategies
- Partner with key stakeholders, including industry, academia, and regulators to foster collaborations to prevent EMA in spices

Ideal Volunteers

- Importers with expertise in potential risks of EMA and prevention strategies for spices
- Comfort sharing experiences with these challenges
- Solutions-oriented approach to fraud prevention

Volunteer Time Commitment

- Quarterly virtual conference calls
- 1-2 in-person meetings per year

Shannen Kelly, Staff Liaison: skelly@astaspice.org
For questions or to join this committee